LR 24, 27

tension by standing up and being recognized? Welcome to your Legislature to the Quigleys. And now the question before the house is the adoption of the Czech resolution, LR 27. All those in favor vote green, those opposed vote red as somebody said one day. Do you want a roll call vote?

SENATOR MARESH: Yes, a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: Mr. Clerk, we will have a roll call vote. Okay, roll call vote.

CLERK: (Read roll call vote found on page 947 of the Legislative Journal.) 35 ayes, 0 nays and 14 not voting, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion passes and the resolution is adopted. Senator Maresh, you can breathe easily. Senator Brennan, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR BRENNAN: Was I recorded as voting?

PRESIDENT: Was Senator Brennan recorded as voting?

SENATOR BRENNAN: If I can get some assurance from Senator Maresh and Senator Wesely if they will bring some jaternices in here next year, I will vote in affirmative.

PRESIDENT: Thanks, Senator Brennan. I'm almost afraid to say what is next on the agenda here this morning. Let's go to LR 24, Mr. Clerk. It is also Senator Maresh, so...

CLERK: (Read LR 24.) That, Mr. President, may be found on page 902 of the Journal.

PRESIDENT: 902. The Chair recognizes Senator Maresh.

SENATOR MARESH: Mr. President, I hope this resolution is not as controversial as the last one, but after we passed LB 322 the other day Senator Lamb and I decided to sponsor this resolution to make sure that the publications by the various agencies are cataloged in the Clerk's office and I talked to Pat. He agreed that this would be a good resolution to adopt. If there are any questions, I am willing to answer them. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Are there any questions? If not, Senator Maresh, I guess that was your opening and your closing. The question before the house is the adoption of LR 24.
